As you plan your Bike & Boat trip to Corfu, here is some important information about your vacation with Pedal & Sea Adventures.

GREECE PRE & POST TOUR IMPORTANT INFORMATION

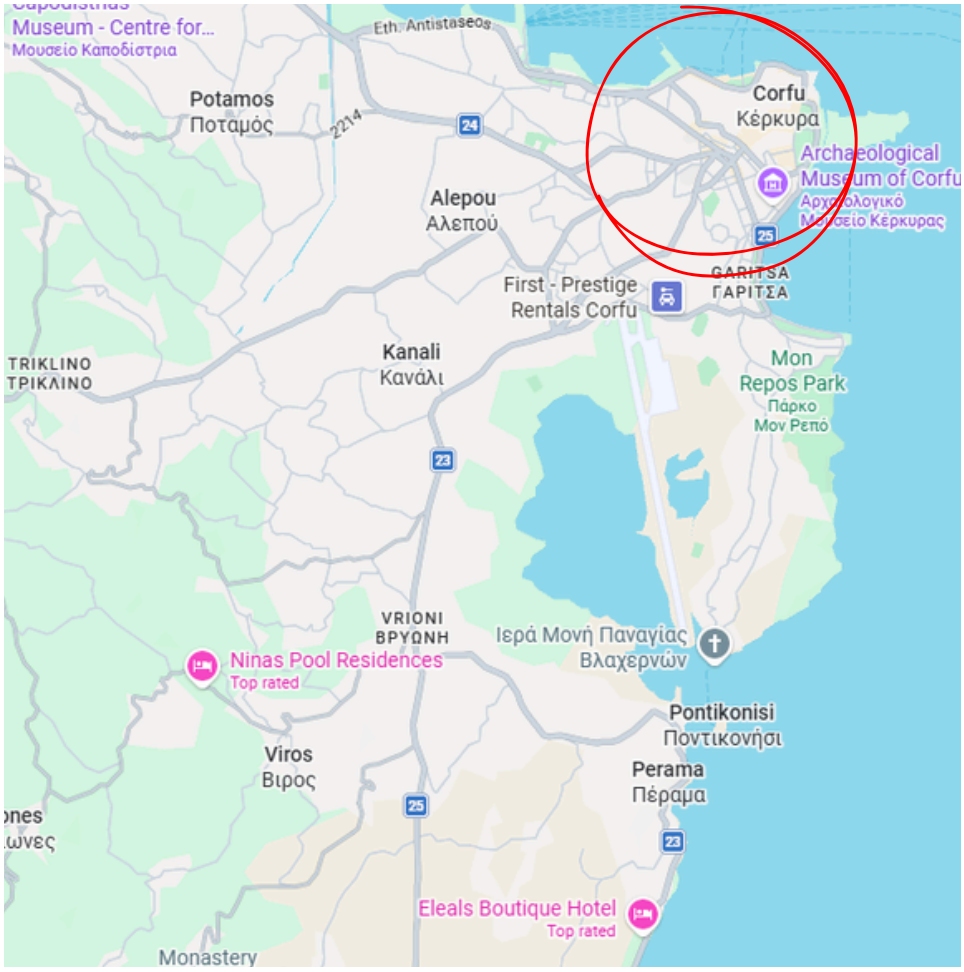

AIRPORTS

Departures / Arrivals

Guests fly in and out of Corfu International Airport

- Corfu (CFU)

Direct flights are available from most European cities making transfers from North America easy

TRANSPORTATION

From the Airport

Corfu International Airport (CFU) is approximately 30 minutes from the port in Corfu Town.

Taxis and private transfers are readily available at the airport. Guests should provide the driver with the name of the embarkation port or their pre-tour hotel

- Taxi / Uber / Private Transfer: A taxi from Corfu International Airport to Corfu Town or the port typically takes around 10–15 minutes and costs approximately €15–€25, depending on the time of day, traffic, and exact destination. Taxis are available outside the terminal. Private transfers can also be arranged in advance.

- Public Bus: Blue Bus Line 15 connects Corfu International Airport with Corfu Town, San Rocco Square, and the port. The journey takes approximately 15 minutes, with tickets costing around €2 per person, depending on where the ticket is purchased. Bus services may be less frequent outside peak periods and may not operate late at night.

Registration

- Please be there to register between 12:00 - 1:30 PM on the day of your departure.
- The boat is sceduled to depart at 2:00 PM
- Please do not be late. The boats leave on schedule – the Captains are given their times by the harbour master and cannot change these once assigned.

End of Tour

The boat returns to Corfu on Friday morning at approximately 11:00 A.M. Guests should plan to remain with the group until the boat has docked and disembarkation is complete.

To allow sufficient time for disembarkation and transportation to Corfu International Airport, we strongly recommend that guests do not book international flights departing before 2:00 P.M. on Friday. Earlier flights may not be achievable, particularly if there are delays returning to port or during the disembarkation process.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Boat Information

Each cabin has its own ensuite bathroom and shower, towels, soap, shampoo, etc. All cabins have drawers and cabinets to store your luggage. Most cabins will have hair dryers - you need a European adapter (2 prong).

There are places to hang your wet/washed biking clothes to dry. There is also laundry facilities for a charge.

Luggage

There is room in your cabin to accommodate your suitcases whether carry-on or larger.

Power Adapter

You will require a 2-prong European adapter.

Alcohol

The Bar on the boat will run a tab for you which you are reqiured to pay on the last night of the tour. PAYMENT

OUTSIDE ALCOHOL - Per Greek alcohol regulations, guests are not permitted to bring their own alcohol on board. The bar with plenty of spirit, beer and wine choices at reasonable prices.

Dress

Your dress on the boat is very casual. Dress for meals is usually shorts and t-shirts. Please avoid high heels while on the boat. Cycling shoes with exposed cleats cannot be worn on the boat.

Cycling gear is widely used on tour and we recommend you have 2 sets; one to wear and one to clean and hang to dry. Pack rain gear. We are on coastal islands and could come into a wee bit of wet weather.

Meals

Included as part of your tour is breakfast each day, 6 lunches, and 3 dinners.

Ask your guides for extraordinary Greek dining recommendations while on shore.

Dietary

Any guest with dietary or allergy issues must make this known to Pedal & Sea Adventures' office before the tour and to the guides at check-in. We want/need you to re-engage the issue with your guides so they are specifically paying attention to your needs.

BIKES

Each of you may have rented a specific type of bicycle and every effort is made to provide that bike to you. That said, our bike mechanics prepare our bikes to be in good working order when you receive them. Our guides are phenomenal and capable of assisting with many bike things! They will make every effort to keep your bicycle working well. It is your responsibility to treat the bike with reasonable care; eg. Do not drop the bike, don't drop the battery, etc. Do not let them fall into the harbour - seriously!

Helmets are mandatory to participate in any Pedal & Sea Adventure cycling tour. We will provide helmets to those who requested when booking. All non-road bikes will have a pannier or trunk bag for your use.

Water Bottles – A new Pedal & Sea Adventures water bottle is issued to each guest. Unlimited bottled water is available to everyone.

Cycling Safety Decisions – Are squarely the responsibility of our Guides – they have the final say (after the Captain of the boat). Please respect their decision making. It keeps you and your fellow guests safe.

Cash

Greece's official currency is the EURO. You may need to have some cash Euros for certain items in Greece:

- Items purchased while ashore – some vendors may, or may not accept credit cards
- Taxis, transfers
- Cycling Guide tipping
- Boat Crew tipping
- City tour guides tipping
- Meals while on shore – some restaurants may, or may not accept credit cards

Tipping

We are often asked for guidance regarding tipping and we appreciate you asking. Tipping is ALWAYS at the guests' preference. Envelops will be provided.

There are two groups to consider tipping:

- Cycling guides
- The entire boat crew

Recommended amount PER GUEST:

- Cycling guides - 70 euros per guest per guide. For example: 2 guides x 70 euros = 140 euros per guest. Adjust accordingly as you see fit.

- Boat crew - We recommend a similar amount. $140 euros per guest for the boat crew.

SIGHTSEEING IN CORFU

Corfu is an island where Venetian architecture, Greek history, and Ionian scenery come together. From the charming streets and arcades of Corfu Town to historic fortresses, peaceful seaside walks, and welcoming cafés, the island offers plenty to discover before or after your tour. Whether you're exploring the UNESCO-listed Old Town, visiting beautiful beaches, or enjoying the relaxed island atmosphere, Corfu is a memorable destination to experience.

Must-Do's

- Corfu Old Town: A UNESCO World Heritage Site featuring Venetian architecture, narrow cobblestone streets known as kantounia, and the French-inspired Liston arcade. It is ideal for walking, shopping, dining, and exploring, although the historic centre is not accessible by car.

- Old Fortress (Palaio Frourio): A 16th-century Venetian sea fortress located on a rocky peninsula. Visitors can enjoy impressive 360-degree views over Corfu Town, the coastline, and the Ionian Sea.

- Paleokastritsa Monastery: A 13th-century hilltop monastery overlooking turquoise bays. It features Byzantine artifacts, peaceful flower-filled courtyards, and scenic viewpoints. Visitors can also rent boats to explore nearby coves and islands. It is approximately one hour by car from Corfu Town.

- Achilleion Palace: A neoclassical estate built in 1890 for Empress Elisabeth of Austria, known as Sisi. The palace is recognized for its terraced gardens, statues, and artwork inspired by Greek mythology.
